Grace and peace to you from God.

Malo e Lelei, Talofa tava, Namaste, noah'ia, Ni Sa Bula Vinaka and Good morning. Indeed with the joyous transformative atmosphere of Eastertide, we come together to celebrate with excitement a new phase and chapter in the life, ministry and service of the Diocese in recognizing the commissioning and launching of the new Website for the Diocese of Polynesia. This marks a momentous milestone in our faith journey which allows us to broaden our ministry throughout the Diocese of Polynesia, Aotearoa and New Zealand, and beyond.

This Diocesan website is not just an IT digital platform but a powerful medium that assists in enhancing and strengthening our relationship and connectedness both in the Diocese and the wider community of faith. As Disciples of the Risen Christ, this tool is a vehicle to assist in our proclamation of the gospel of Christ that brings living hope, peace, joy and Love to the whole people of God.

This technology provides an advanced method of sharing the Gospel, widening the scope of our pastoral outreach and connecting God's people together both near and far. Our Diocesan website will enable us to share and preserve our stories. A platform for sharing meaningful resources and significant events in the life journey of the Diocese that reflected our spiritual growth.

We now witness and embrace this new development, and how it transforms our faith journey. It points towards unity, uniformity, order which leads to flourishing in the
