Gracious God, we give you thanks for the gift of the world-wide Anglican Communion of churches:
for the experience of belonging to all the ages,
for the gift of thoughtful prayer that you have taught us,
and for the task of reverent study to which you call us.

We thank you for the love of worship
you have stirred up in our hearts, and for the love of justice you have implanted in our wills.
Remind us that you are with us in times of trouble as in times of joy;
nurture in us thankful hearts when we stand together,
and send your holy wisdom into our disagreements.

In dispute, maybe we gentle and loving;
in unity, may we be humble; in poverty, nourish us with hope;
in wealth, help us become responsible and generous.

Inflame us with prophetic vision so that our fellowship may bear the likeness of the incoming kingdom proclaimed for all by Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Ecumenical Prayer

All Lord Jesus Christ,
you call us together in faith and love.
Breathe again the new life of your Holy Spirit among us that we may hear your holy word, pray in your name, seek unity among Christians,
and harmony with all men, women and nature,
and live more fully the faith we profess.

Amen.

DIOCESAN LITURGICAL COMMITTEE

DAY 31

Let us pray for our common mission with global bodies especially World Council of Churches (WCC), Anglican Communion (AC)

World Council of Churches: The representative from the Anglican Church to the WCC and their role in bringing together denominations throughout the world.

They give space for members to reflect, speak, act and worship.

Provide ways to serve human needs, breaking down barriers between people, seeking justice and peace and upholding the integrity of Creation.

Anglican Communion: The Anglican Communion and the instruments for Communion/ Unity.

Archbishop of Canterbury, Primates Meeting, Anglican Consultative Council (ACC) and the Lambeth Conference and other bodies in the AC, United Society Partners in the Gospel (USPG)

Help all Anglicans to be theologically alert and sensitive to the call of God and ensuring that our church become a living witness to our belief that women and men are equally made in the image of God.

We also pray for The United Nations (UN):

for the UN Secretary General and its different institutions and arms of governance and work towards making the world a safe and better place for generations to come by maintaining international peace and security, developing friendly relations among nations and promoting social progress, better living standards, human rights and climate change.

Prayer for our Leaders

Sovereign God and Father
from whom all nations on earth derive their names, We offer our prayers of intercessions and thanksgiving
for the leaders of our nations and those in high positions of authority.

In your goodness watch over them,
so that peoples everywhere may enjoy freedom, security, prosperity and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit
one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Collect for St. Teresa of Avila
God of the interior castle
we praise you for Teresa;
she blazed us a trail to union with you,
and she worked as hard as she prayed;
give us courage to go where she led.

Nadrala – St. Francis

Prayer for the Good Shepherd

*Good Shepherd of the Sheep, by whom the lost are sought
and guided into the fold;
feed us and we shall be satisfied heal us and we shall be whole and lead us that we may be with you, with the Father and the Holy Spirit.*

Collect for St. John the Evangelist

God our Father, we praise you for John, your evangelist, whose gospel reveals the mystery of the Word made flesh; grant that, enlightened by his teaching, we may walk in the way of your truth, and finally come to the light of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
